New Menus

Letters have been sent home this week to those children who usually have dinners with the new menu choices for next term and also the extra option which we hope will mean that your child enjoys a full lunch. If you would like your child to have a school dinner next half term and do not currently receive a menu please call into the school office.

PE Polo Shirts

These have arrived in school and will be given out to the children after half term. It was stated in Mrs Stephen's previous letter the PE shorts should be blue when they should be black. The amended letter is now on the website, apologies for this error.
